The reader board along Hwy 101 is the property of the GCC. The reader board may be used without charge to publicize events and activities occurring at the GCC. Messages may be posted up to one week prior to the scheduled GCC event. Scheduling conflicts may be resolved by the sharing of the reader board, one event per side.

Community events that do not involve the use of the GCC may be approved to use the reader board. If the reader board is used for non GCC events, the following guidelines apply:

- Signs may not be used for commercial, political or religious advertisement.
- Rental time requires a minimum of three days and a maximum of seven days.
- A signed agreement and payment in advance are required.
